

TEXAS HANDGUN ASSOCIATION
DIRECTORSHIP INTEREST FORM

Are you interested in serving? For many, serving on the board of Texas Handgun Association (TxHGA) is a way to support our second amendment rights and promote high standards of instruction and training. Additionally, it gives you an opportunity to be part of a team who, together, shape the strategic direction of the organization and constantly think about new ways to better serve the needs of the handgun community. During the 2022 annual conference members' meeting on Saturday, May 14th, the TxHGA members will be electing three director positions (each are three-year terms), as well as filling a vacancy position that will expire next year in 2023. These are volunteer, non-funded positions that meets at least quarterly, in person or electronically. A board member must be an active member of the association and actively participate in board functions. Nominations may also occur during the members' meeting, but if you would like to submit your interest beforehand, you can complete the information below and submit the completed form no later than May 9, 2022 to:

TxHGA, PO Box 161713, Austin, Texas 78716 or by email to texashandgunassoc@gmail.com
